

Financial Security if you become disabled or suffer a critical illness

Your financial wellness journey begins when you start planning for what's important.

Your ability to earn an income is your greatest financial asset. Securing your ability to do so is important because not only will this benefit you, it will help your loved ones too. Metropolitan offers tailor-made solutions that will help you achieve financial security if you were to find yourself unable to work because you become disabled or critically ill.

What are the benefits?

A cash amount that will help you to adapt and make a new lifestyle more comfortable for you should you become disabled or critically ill.

Cover starts from R150 000 with a limit of up to R 5 000 000 for occupational disability and R 1 500 000 for critical illness.

You can choose between medical and non-medical testing cover, which can either be for a lifetime or up to the age of 60.

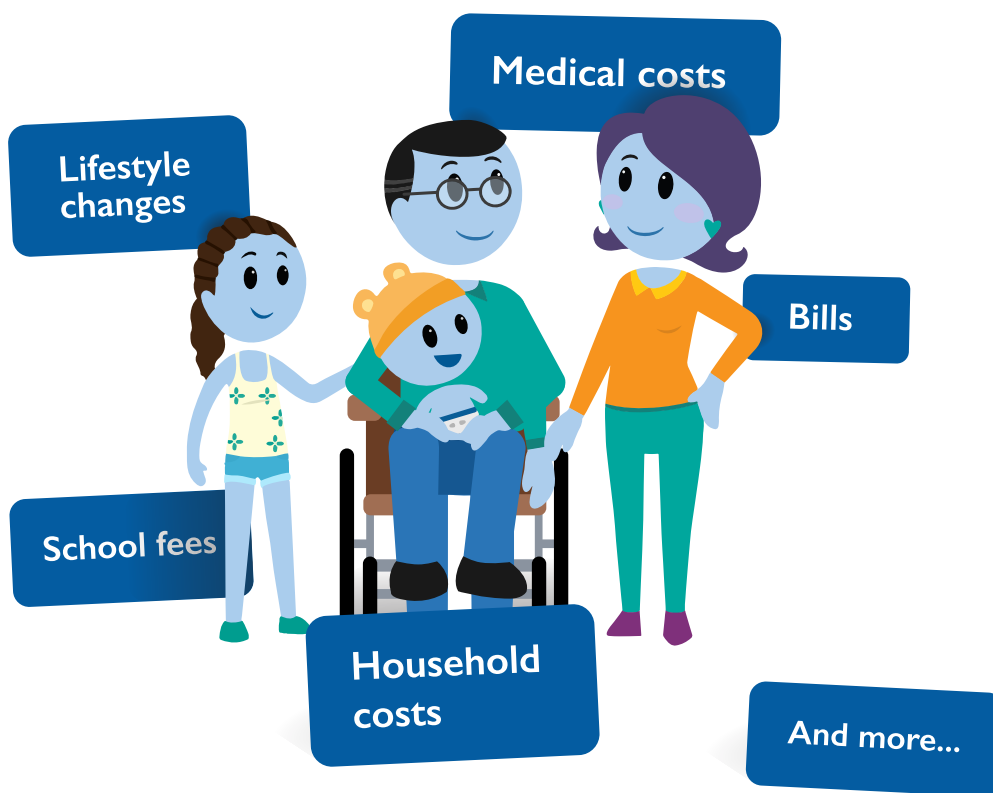

You can also choose from a variety of additional benefits to protect your plan should you be retrenched or experience financial difficulties.

Financial Security if you become disabled or suffer a critical illness

Your financial wellness journey begins when you start planning for what's important.

Who will take over when you can't?

A critical illness or disability would affect your family too. There are many physical and financial needs that can arise from such a drastic change. With the payout that you receive from our solution, you can receive much needed financial relief when you need it most.