

Daily cash if you are hospitalised

Your financial wellness journey begins when you start planning for what's important.

A hospital stay can cause unexpected physical and financial strain. Your living expenses don't stop when you are in a hospital and the last thing you would want to worry about when in a hospital is how to pay for day to day expenses as well as other unexpected costs. You can spare yourself the worry should you find yourself in that position through Metropolitan's HealthCare CashBack solution.

What are the benefits?

You choose your cover levels based on your needs as well as how much you can afford to contribute monthly.

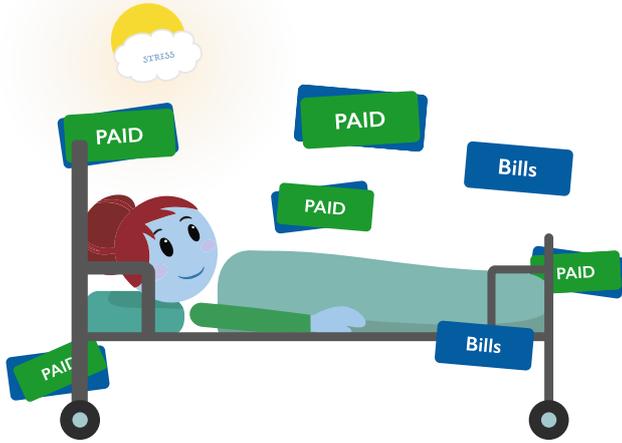

A hospital stay can result in a few situations you weren't ready for, mainly:

- Extra costs for a caretaker, depending on how serious your medical condition or injury is.
- Loss of income.
- Additional financial support for your family.
